RIOT INQUIRY ON; THOMPSON QUITS FORCE.

Police Captain in Whose Precinct Jews Were Clubbed Suddenly Retires.

"JOHN DOE" IS SOUGHT.

Summons Obtained for Employee of R. Hoe & Co. Who Is Believed to Have Started Attack on Mourners.

Energetic action to discover and punish the instigator of the east-side riots was begun to-day by the vigilance committee, which is also after the police officials who, it is charged, ordered the clubbing of the mourners at Rabbi Joseph's funeral.

On the heels of Capt. Price's retirement and Inspector Cross's transfer came another surprise in the voluntary retirement of Capt. William Thompson, of the Madison street station, in whose precinct the rioting occurred.

Might Have Been Tried.

While the Captain says that his retirement was not induced by the fact that he was in charge of the police who participated in the riot in front of the Hoe printing press factory last Wednesday, without doubt he would have had to stand trial.

Capt. Thompson will receive a pension of $1,500 a year. Sgt. John W. Cottrell, of the Jefferson Market Court square, is the ranking policeman in the Civil Service list, and as it is the custom of Commissioner Partridge to appoint the sergeant next in line for promotion to vacant captaincies Sgt. Cottrell will probably become Capt. Cottrell next Monday and take command of the Madison street station.

Summons for "John Doe."

Acting upon the information given by witnesses of the riot attending the funeral of Rabbi Joseph, officers of the Jewish Vigilance Committee went to Essex Market Court to-day and secured a summons for "John Doe."

The summons was given to one of the officers of the committee and probably will be served to-day.

The person against whom the summons is directed is said to be an employee of the Hoe Printing Press Company, and the offense with which he is charged is inciting the riotous crowd in which so many Jews were beaten and clubbed. The prosecution of this man will be vigorous and should it be successful other prosecutions will follow.

Statement from Mr. Hoe.

R. H. Hoe, Jr., when told of the action of the Jewish Vigilance Committee in getting a John Doe summons for one of the employees of the firm, made the following statement:

"There is no call for secrecy in this matter. Our firm is willing to co-operate in any investigation tending to place the responsibility for the disturbance. In fact, we welcome a full and free investigation, and if we had been notified that one of our men was wanted we would have held the force after the riot hour, when the factory closes down on Saturday, to give the committee every opportunity to serve the summons. "This committee is not treating us fairly. In a statement to the public they say we have fully fifty Jews in our factory. Some of them have been with us many years, and all are excellent workmen and highly thought of. We have no prejudice against the Jews, and no statement of the committee on the part of the Vigilance Committee does not tend to help their cause with people who know the facts."

CROSS'S TRANSFER MAY BENEFIT CHURCHILL.

From an authoritative source it is learned by The Evening World that the transfer of Inspector Cross was decided upon fully ten days ago. That determination was reached after Commissioner Partridge had completed his reading of the testimony in the case against Capt. Churchill.

It was directly due to the revelations made during the trial of Churchill that the transfer of Cross was decided upon. It is further stated that Commissioner Partridge is of the opinion that the decision as to the Churchill case and that it will be practically an exoneration of the accused precinct commander. The decision has not yet been written, but the mind of the Commissioner is made up, and Churchill is not to suffer greatly as a result of the charges made by Cross.

SERG. MULHOLLAND DEAD.

Police Sergeant John B. Mulholland, of the Arsenal Police station, died in the Presbyterian Hospital, this afternoon from acute pneumonia. He was taken to the hospital on Wednesday afternoon by his wife.

Serg. Mulholland was appointed to the Arsenal Police station in 1879. He was forty-five years old and left a widow and children in Brooklyn.

RECTOR FALLS FROM A BOAT AND DROWNS.

Rev. Edward L. Atkinson, of Epiphany Church, Loses Life at Plymouth, Mass.

WAS YOUNG AND POPULAR

New York Minister Was on a Visit to Rev. Allen G. Rice—Strange Feature in the Drowning.

The Evening World called up Capt. Daniel Ferguson, of the Plymouth, Mass., police force, on the long-distance telephone this afternoon and obtained from him this statement of the drowning of the Rev. Edward L. Atkinson, rector of the Church of the Epiphany, in this city:

"Mr. Atkinson came here just before noon yesterday to spend a day with his friend, Rev. Allen G. Rice, at the Burgess cottage.

"He said he was taking a short vacation because he was feeling blue and was about played out. The two talked together cheerily until dinner. After the meal the friends played ball for a while until Mr. Rice was called away to some duty.

"Mr. Atkinson said he would take a row on Boot Pond, a little lake adjoining, and went out alone in a flat-bottomed boat. Some time after Mr. Rice saw Mr. Atkinson get up in the boat and take off his coat, vest and cuffs.

Saw Struggle in Water.

"A second later and he saw Mr. Atkinson struggling in the water. He sank before Mr. Rice could call help or go to his aid. Strange to say, Mr. Atkinson did not appear above the surface once after he went down.

"The boat, a flat-bottomed affair, floated ashore. The minister's clothes were in it, perfectly dry.

"The oars were in the boat, too. Mr. Rice says Mr. Atkinson could not swim, but he thinks it strange he did not rise to the surface. "Some of those who knew Mr. Atkinson have hinted that perhaps it was not an accidental death, but Mr. Rice says he knows of nothing that would have caused Mr. Atkinson to kill himself.

"We have dragged the lake all day for the body, but have not found it yet. George H. Atkinson, brother of the dead man, arrived from Marblehead this afternoon. He says it must surely have been an accident."

Rector Was a Bachelor.

Rev. Mr. Atkinson was unmarried. He had apartments at the Carlyle Chambers, No. 2 West Thirty-eighth street. His first pastorate was at Springfield, Mass., where he remained a year, going to Boston from there as rector of the fashionable Church of the Ascension. After five years at the head of the Boston parish he was called to the Church of the Epiphany, in this city, last winter. His brother, Frederick Atkinson, is the Superintendent of Public Instruction in the Philippines.

As Mr. Atkinson was known to have been an ardent oarsman and football player and all-around athlete in his college days, the news that he met death by drowning was a great astonishment to his friends here.

A letter was received by the sexton of the church yesterday saying that the Rev. Mr. Gilbert would preach to-morrow. Mr. Atkinson inhaled a list of the hymns he wished sung.

FAME FOR MARGARET AYER.

Great Future Predicted for American Girl Who Charmed Paris.

LONDON, Aug. 2.—On board the steamship Pennsylvania, now nearing New York, is a young American girl who has charmed Paris. Margaret Ayer, daughter of Harriet Hubbard Ayer, has been educated in France and Germany, and this season her unique rendering of eighteenth century chansons has been the feature of several smart musical functions in Paris.

She refused an offer to make her debut next season at the Opera Comique, Paris, and returns to America to enter on her musical career in her own country. Miss Ayer and Frau Cosima Wagner heard her sing and predict a great future for her.

(Special to The World.)

POLO GROUNDS, NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—McGraw's made-over Giants met the supreme test this afternoon when they faced Fred Clarke's Smoky City Champions. In the language of Pretty Molly Shannan, the Giants were up against the real thing, and they knew it.

Fred Clarke has put together the cleverest aggregation of baseball talent that patrons of the national game have seen in years. In batting, fielding and base running they have proved supreme and made a runaway race of the championship contest.

"They made the Jack Doyle giants look like pigmies some weeks back. What will they do with Muggsy's 'Made Events' after the question asked by the 20,000 'fans' who braved the threatening rain and journeyed to the Polo Grounds.

What a sublime spectacle of hope was that audience of 20,000 here in debt of the weather to witness the struggle between leaders and tail-enders in the league race.

Smith Disabled.

McGraw was not able to put up his best front for his powerful opponent. George Smith's spiked hand kept him out of the game, and Johnny Dunn in middle infield, with Roger Breenahan in right field, McGraw was shy a brilliant fielder by the change, but he gained a good batter, for Breenahan has proved himself one of New York's few good ones at the bat. The arrangement will continue for some time, as Smith's hand will not be in playing shape for a week.

Luther Taylor was selected to puzzle the Pirates, and Fred Clarke put Phillips on the rubber to oppose the Giants. "We don't like your quiet man Taylor," said Manager Fred Clarke, "but I guess our tall boy will take your measure. He put the old Giants out without a hit this year and will try hard to serve McGraw's bunch the same trick."

Taylor in the Box.

Taylor warmed up in fine style and looked a winner all over as our friends from the quarter stretch say, but the story has yet to be told. One old friend, Doheny, of the Santos-Dumont prodigies, warmed up beside Phillips. The crowd wondered if Fred Clarke would try out the New York coast-off and while they wondered they hoped, especially the bleachers.

The possibilities with Eddie in a tight place, the fusillade from 20,000 fans, were of allurement and promise of victory. McGraw and Billy Lauder furnished the fireworks in the preliminary practice while Johnny Dunn had his own trouble with the bouncers, along the middle sack. New York warmed up anything but well, but the crowd gave a warming cheer at the bell tap.

First Inning.

The announcement that Doheny, and not the terrible Phillips, would twirl for the Pirates gave the rosters vigor and hope. A last short put Clarke on first. A foul tap on the insipid put Bowerman withering across the plate. New York's hard luck seemed beginning. Taylor made a brilliant assist of Beaman's punt, Clarke advancing. Then Leach drove to center, Bowerman's hand at the grand stand trying to head off Clarke's score, and Lauder made a mess of the throw to catch Leach at third. The hoodoo was working overtime and the crowd hissed. Wagner hit to Lauder, who threw into Bowerman's hands. A schoolboy's muff let Leach in and Wagner's second. Breenahan's drive to center scored Wagner. Ritzhey doubled to right. Taylor gave way to Cronin, who fanned Cronoy and revived hope. Smith died on an easy one to Dunn. Three runs.

Jones tipped a high one for Beaman, Doheny could not suit McGraw and the BORALMA MAY BE PERMANENTLY INJURED.

CHARTER OAK PARK, HARTFORD, Conn., Aug. 2.—Boralma's injury consisted of an artery cut, and it is doubtful if the horse ever races again. Lawson had matched him with The Albott for this track the last of August. Boralma is the only horse that Lawson ever personally purchased, and he gave $17,000 for him. Lord Derby won a mile in 3.44 alone, it being necessary for him to win three heats before being declared the winner.

DRY SUNDAY AT CONEY? WELL, JUST READ KNIPE'S ORDER!

New Police Commander Bars Liquor with Sandwiches and Tights at Sacred Concerts.

Capt. William Knipe, who took charge of the Coney Island Police Station to-day, issued orders this afternoon which will make Coney Island the quietest and most reserved summer resort along the coast to-morrow.

"The hotel law must be observed," he said, "and I know what a hotel looks like. To sell drinks under the hotel license the hotel must have a big dining-room, bedrooms, fire-escapes and other things which will identify it as a hotel and not as a saloon."

"No drinks served with an oyster cracker or a summer-sausage sandwich. Drinks can be served only with full and complete meals."

"The sacred concert law must be closely observed. There must be no theatrical performances. To have music it must be strictly spiritual music and I know what a church organ sounds like. The sacred singers cannot wear tights or appear in short skirts. They must not paint their faces, nor dance."

"The people can bathe all they please and enjoy other amusements, but I'm going to show this place what it is by having a strictly observed Sabbath."

Capt. Knipe sent Detectives Bahmann, Mulvey, Taylor and Lynch to all of the resorts at the beach to spread the news. The keepers of the licent and other shows were told that they would not be permitted to open to-morrow.

HEAVY PASSENGER TRAIN RUNS MILE IN 42 SECONDS.

A remarkable short-distance run by a heavy passenger train is reported by the New York Central Railroad. The train, drawn by one of the big modern engines, made the mile between Mount Kisco and Chap-pagna in forty-two seconds.

This is the record time for that section of the Harlem division, but railroad men say that the run can be made in even less time providing adequate arrangements are made.

STEAMER STRIKES LEDGE, PASSENGERS IN PERIL.

HALIFAX, N. S., Aug. 2.—A message to the customs officials here announces that the Norwegian steamer Blaamanden, Capt. Amundsen, from Hamburg for Philadelphia, struck on White Point Ledge, off Canso, in a dense fog to-day.

No details were made known by the advises to the customs officers, aside from the statement that the steamer has a big cargo and a number of passengers.

The customs department at Ottawa has been advised of the accident and has ordered officers to the scene, which is about four miles from Canso.

FAVORITE BEATEN IN $10,000 RACE.

Major Daingerfield Finished Four Lengths Behind S. S. Brown's Colt. Time, 2:04 1-5 Fast—Hurstbourne, at 11 to 20, Wins the $10,000 Brighton Junior.

(Special to The World.)

BRIGHTON BEACH RACE-TRACK, Aug. 2.—Hyphen won the Brighton Derby.

Major Daingerfield, the heavily played favorite, finished second. The race was one of the fastest held on the track this season. Hyphen had no trouble in winning, galloping home an easy victor by four lengths.

The time of the race was 2:04 1-5. The Brighton Junior Stake race furnished a much better race than the main event. Hurstbourne, the favorite, at 11 to 20, caused his backers some worry, but won by a head from Blue Ribbon, an outsider. Woodlake was third. The time was 1:15.

There were nearly 20,000 people present, many drawn out by the knowledge that, after to-day, there will be no more local racing for a month.

The weather was charming and the track fast.

Atheola raced to the front and opened up a gap of several lengths on Great American, Gold Bragg and Georgia Gardner, who raced in a close bunch behind. They ran this way to the turn where Luther rushed to the lead, and, going to the front when they swung into the stretch, won by 2 1/2 lengths from Kiki, who beat Atheola a head in a hard drive. Atheola was disqualified for fouling Great American, and Justice was third.

BORALMA WINS FIRST HEAT, BUT CUTS HIS QUARTER BADLY.

Lawson's Gelding Finishes Out the Second and Third Heats Gamely, but Is So Badly Hurt that He Is Withdrawn by Advice of Veterinary and the Race Is Given to Lord Derby.

(Special to The Evening World.)

CHARTER OAK PARK, Aug. 2.—Lord Derby won the great $30,000 trotting match race from Boralma, who was disabled after winning the first heat.

The conditions were the best three in five heats. The first heat was won easily by Boralma, by four lengths, after leading all the way. Lord Derby broke near the finish. This heat was trotted in 2:08.

Scoring for the second heat Boralma cut his quarter and limped badly. Two attempts were made to get the animals off on even terms. Boralma was in the lead when they got the word.

Boralma led to the three-quarters where Lord Derby passed Lawson's candidate and took the lead at the seven-eighths pole. Derby spurred in the homestretch and won hat lastly. Time—2:09 1/4.

The betting was now 50 to 15 on Lord Derby. In the third heat Lord Derby led two lengths at the quarter and flashed under the wire a winner by two lengths. Geers did not have to push his horse. On the homestretch Boralma made a gallant bid, but the pace set by Lord Derby was killing, and the Boston horse could not get up. Time of heat—2:18 1/4.

Lord Derby's fractional time for this heat was .35, 1:08 1/4, 1:40 1/4, 2:18 1/4. Lord Derby was not opposed in the fourth and deciding heat which gave him the race. Boralma, which had cut his quarter in the second heat, was withdrawn and Lord Derby was declared the winner amid great cheers from the vast crowd at the track.

Dr. Lee, Mr. Lawson's adviser, examined Boralma, and two veterinary surgeons say that Boralma will not be able to race again this season. The horse went splendidly in the first heat, and Boralma's chances were considered excellent until he had the accident.

OVER 15,000 PERSONS PRESENT TO SEE THE RACE.

(Special to The Evening World.)

CHARTER OAK PARK, HARTFORD, Conn., Aug. 2.—With the temperature at 90 degrees and the track in perfect condition, everything was favorable for the great Lord Derby-Boralma race this afternoon.

The match originally arranged for $20,000 a side, considered the main stakes. To this offer the Charter Oak Park management has added $10,000, making $50,000, the entire amount to go to the winner. In addition to this great sum it is understood Messrs. Lawson and Smathers made another side bet of $20,000 on the result, making the total amount raced for $90,000.

John Roche, Mr. Lawson's agent, says he has $100,000 to wager on Boralma aside from the amount mentioned above.

The day opened clear and there was not a sign of a cloud until noon.

The scene at the park was magnificent. The long stretch of ground across the track, with the rolling woodland in the distance, made a beautiful setting for picturesque Charter Oak.

As early as 6 o'clock horsemen were out to see the big horses, but they were kept in seclusion until their final warming up.

Marsh, Boralma's driver, said his horse was fit, and Geers expressed the same opinion about Lord Derby. John Loughlin, Boralma's trainer, was most at in his estimate, and as he stroked the neck of Lawson's noble animal he said:

"The horse is good, has speed and is fit for the race of his life."

That was the extent to which he would discuss the Lawson horse and his chances.

Lawson Not There.

There was a good deal of disappointment when it was learned that Mr. Lawson would not be here. Jack Roche, his agent, received word that Mr. Lawson was too busy to come, but that his son and partner had started.

Hartford people had expected that Mr. Lawson might donate his winnings to a local charity if his horse won.

George L. Dougherty, superintendent of Pinkerton's New York agency, was in charge of a big force of detectives. Pinkerton men were at every gate and the stand entrances and the force was augmented by all the Hartford sleuths. Six supposed crooks were bagged by headquarters men from New York and taken by Hartford officers to a gallery to sit for their pictures.

Betting Began Early.

Herdie, the pool man, climbed into his box before noon and the betting on the preliminary races started off in a lively manner. Every visitor to the track could not help noticing a palace horse car on a sliding marked "Dynamold, the Farm of Thomas W. Lawson."

Derby 10 to 6 Favorite.

Ex-Secretary of the Navy Benjamin F. Tracy arrived with a party on early train. There was no slugging in the betting ring up to 1:30. About twenty tickets at $1,000 to $500 on Lord Derby were sold up to that time. Later tickets at $50 to $25 were sold in considerable numbers.

15,000 See the Race.

The bleachers were crowded before the preliminary race was started, and when the New York and Boston specials rolled in, every car full, it swelled the crowd to 15,000. William C. Whitney came with several friends. The first heat of the 2:00 race was over before Mr. Lawson's judge was selected by A. J. Welsh. C. J. K. Billings, of New York, consented to act.

Tom Sharkey came with the New York party and was quickly
